_____ uses electronic means (email and web page) to provide notifications to students. The institution believes this is the fastest way to communicate with you. Among notifications that you can receive from us are:

- Application process reminders and scholarship opportunities
- Award Letters
- Disbursement Notifications
- Student Academic Progress Notifications
- Direct Loan Program Counseling
- Federal Work Study Program Information
- Consumer Information

We encourage you to authorize electronic communications usage by selecting the “I Accept to Participate in Electronic Communications” option and providing your personal email.

 I Accept to Participate in Electronic Communications

o Current email address: _____

You must immediately notify the institution if your personal email changes.

If an invalid email address is provided, the institution will cancel your authorization and will be providing notices through the US mail service.

You may opt out of electronic communications at any moment by selecting the “I do not Accept to Participate in Electronic Communications” option below.

 I do not Accept to Participate in Electronic Communications

By selecting this option I understand that it would take longer for me to receive notifications due to manual processes needed and the U.S. mail service.
